Be Yourself. Be Creative.

Jackie Joy Young has been involved in the Christian arts scene for over 30 years.

She did an education degree – with part of her thesis looking at theatre in schools and shadowing Footprints theatre company. She has also hosted many workshops, art exhibitions, dance intensives, theatre shows and conferences.

Jackie had experienced the power of prayer from childhood. In the early 1990s she joined the Christian dance Fellowship of Britain (CDFB) and discovered how movement could be a powerful and creative tool in her prayer life.

She has travelled across the UK and Europe meeting with others who share her passion.

Jackie's workshops will look at how movement and creativity can be used in prayer, prophecy and encouragement. Each workshop will be an opportunity to encounter God and to develop new skills / tools you can take back to your church and community.
